

Internal Parts & Dissociation: Resource Guide

(©Copyright 2025 K.D. Lehman MD, New 12/16/2025, Last Revised 2/12/26)

This document provides a directory to Lehman resources regarding dissociative phenomena (including dissociated internal parts), and also non-dissociated internal parts.

I. The Immanuel Approach: For Emotional Healing and for Life (also known as the big lion book).

The big lion book includes many references to internal parts, dissociation, and dissociated internal parts. Use the index.

II. Immanuel Approach website (www.immanuelapproach.com)

“Different Types of Traumatic Memory”: Pages 6 through 10 of this essay discuss dissociation and dissociated internal parts. Posted in the “Kclehman.com Website Archive” section of Resources page of www.immanuelapproach.com

“Parts Must Participate In Ministry Addressing The Problems They Carry”: Posted in the “Kclehman.com Website Archive” section of Resources page of www.immanuelapproach.com

“Direct eye contact”: This is a simple technique that we have found to be very helpful for working with internal parts (both dissociated and non-dissociated). The essay discussing this technique is posted in the “Special Subjects/Advanced Topics” section of Resources page of www.immanuelapproach.com .

“Opening prayer and commands: prayer for the facilitator...etc”: For people with complicated internal parts phenomena, we have found it to be very helpful to specifically include commands forbidding demonic spirits from causing disruptive switching between internal parts. The full/complete version (as opposed to condensed version) of the opening prayer includes this. Posted at the bottom of the “Training/Practice Exercises for Groups and Beginners” section of Resources page of www.immanuelapproach.com .

“General introductory comments regarding ministry aids”: This essay has a number of comments about dissociation that will probably be helpful. Posted in the “Kclehman.com Website Archive” section of Resources page of www.immanuelapproach.com

IV. Case studies page of www.immanuelapproach.com web site:

“Now that We Have Tools that Work, We can Look at all this Stuff” Internal Parts: Case Study & Reflections” includes an excellent initial discussion regarding dissociative phenomena, dissociative internal parts, and non-dissociative internal parts, and then also a case study about my own experience with both dissociated and non-dissociative internal parts.
